NOTE FROM THE SESSION:

"This is an update communication from the Session to the Providence PCA family. A couple of weeks ago, on budget presentation day, we informed the congregation that we are praying about whether our church should be a single-pastor church. This request for prayer was/is made in the context of our budgetary presentation and in light of our being in an interim between a recently retired pastor and a new pastor to be named. Our request for prayer and God's wisdom is sincere and on-going.

We pray for wisdom as we walk through these issues. The nomination and election of the next Pastor of Providence is before us. The Session takes seriously the responsibility of guiding the church carefully and prayerfully. Toward this end, we are paying attention to the requirements of the Book of Church Order, part of the constitution of the church. Additionally, we are in the process of inviting Rev. Don Clements to counsel, advise, and instruct our church body in some key scriptural points on Pastor-calling and related matters. Our identification of a Pulpit Committee (as directed by the BCO) will follow our instruction period.

We intend to have a time of congregational prayer on Sunday evening, April 27 toward all of these matters. We also have scheduled our periodic Undershepherd meetings at the church on the evening of May 4, 2014. Please pray toward these ends and plan to attend the evening worship services, as God makes provision for you."
